SUBJECT: SLSS Lifesaving Championships Updated Information 2014

Further to Circular 23/13-14 this circular provides an update on the SLSS Lifesaving Championships. This circular includes information from the previous circular but also includes the timetable of events and notes changes to the resuscitation marking section. Please note the Lifesaving Championships are now being conducted over 2 dates.

LOCATION AND ENTRIES

The Lifesaving Championships will be held at Coogee Beach on Thursday 30 January 2014 and Saturday 1st February 2014

Thursday 30 January 2014 from 5.30pm – report by 6.30pm

To avoid lengthy delays on the Coogee Carnival day, the resuscitation component of the Champion Lifesaver event and the Patrol Championship will be held commencing at 5.30pm on Thursday 30 January on the ground floor of the Coogee SLSC. It will be conducted until around 9.30pm. Individuals may arrive from 5.30pm for the champion lifesaver resuscitation component and must have arrived by 6.30pm.

The draw for the Patrol Competition to determine individual positions will be conducted at 6.30pm with all Patrol Team members required to be in attendance.

Please note SLSS Bulletin 5/13-14 highlights changes to the resuscitation sections. A copy of the Circular and current marking guides are attached. These guides will be used in the judging the resuscitation component, and may be used for coaching purposes prior to event day.

Saturday 1st February 2014 – report 7.45am to Coogee Clubhouse

The Theory Paper for both events will commence at 8.00 am.

It is proposed to conduct the Patrol Championship task from 9am to approximately 11am. Access to the competition arena will be available from 11am to conduct physical event components. Further information will be provided on the day.
