

Surf Lifesaving Sydney

The Wanda Greenhill's Intercities Carnival January 12th 2013

Wanda Greenhill's Intercities Board Riding Report

Massive turn up of waxheads on display out the front of Wanda Clubhouse on a 2 foot swell with light off shore breezes and a tricky shore dump made for some exciting surfing with a really creative rip bowl right hander on offer.

Great to see the Malibu's added to the program for the Wanda Intercities Carnival with good depth in all divisions the Open Men tested the water 1st with a series of semis which saw John Lavers go back to back comp wins in the Malibu .The Women also had a series of semis and the Maroubra pair of Georgia Tomaszuk and Anita Peeti go 1st and 3rd to get Maourbra of to a flying Start in the Teams Challenge

Strong Fields across the Malibu's

Open Men Shortboard saw various different strategies played out but Maroubra were on a roll with the honours of being Open Intercities Champion going to Tyson Macintosh from an always impressive Tom Lorkin of North Bondi. Open Ladies saw Jazmyn Turner and Brooke Streater go 1&2 for North Cronulla twice today both picking up a pair of gold and silver earrings to added to there impressive surfing trophy cabinets.

Open Men and Women's Finalists

Surf Lifesaving Sydney

17 Boys saw Tom Lorkin Reverse the Open placings by beating Tyson Macintosh on this occasion and Charlie Bodkin looking impressive on his new board. Sam Annear always puts a good show on when ever surfing and added good points for North Bondi again in the U17 boys division. Emma Lisser form Cronulla placed well in the 17 girls division with Bronte Howell and Dani Calo making another solid finals appearance for North Cronulla.

17 show case of talent

15 Girls saw a final were the scores were extremely close on a surf bank lacking high scoring but all the girls put on a good show with the impressive Ireland Cracknell capped of a good day for Maroubra by placing 2nd today from Alex Budd North Cronulla and Phoebe Hick Wanda 3rd. Jae Withers tried hard on the lefts and Shanelle Peeti and Adelaide Robertson looked hard for opportunities. The 15 Boys saw Brad Matthes and Reece Macintosh go man on man displaying some nice closeout manoeuvres' between them with Brad coming out on top on this occasion.

15 a showcase of the future

Surf Lifesaving Sydney

Team Event Scores

1st North Cronulla

2nd Maroubra

3rd North Bondi

4th Wanda

5th Cronulla

6th Elouera

Next Event Branch Championships, Mid February, Wanda (TBC), Keep your eyes on the Branch website for details closer to the event, And a huge thanks to the North Cronulla Board Riders for hosting a very successful event

All these surfers were worthy finalists today but impressed many with their surfing styles

Brian Matthes North Cronulla

Jamie Hick Wanda

Charlie Bodkin North Bondi

Ireland Cracknell Maroubra

