

Surf Lifesaving Sydney

The North Cronulla Christmas Carnival December 22nd 2012

North Cronulla Board Riding Report

Great turn up of waxheads on display at the Middle of the Wall of North Cronulla Beach on a 2/3 foot plus swell with light off shore breezes made for some exciting surfing with a better left than right.

With good depth in all divisions the Open Men tested the water 1st with a series of exciting semi finals were the young guns just pipped some of the older Masters entries in a very close series of semis. The final saw Rory Jenkins North Cronulla rip a left to pieces and that combined with his 1st wave score was enough to hand him the title from Matt Faddy Bronte 2nd Jarrod Matthes 3rd with a stylish right hander from Joey Michaels' Coogee 4th

The Open Women's was a North Cronulla affair with Veronica Charles crowned Champion today form Jazmyn Turner, Brooke Streater and Maroubra's Georgia Tomaszuk. Sophie Moroney and Wandas Jamie Hick closed out a big field of competitors

Open Male Champions

Open Women Finalists

The Under 19 Boys was a mixed affair with Rory Jenkins just out pointing Joey Michaels from Coogee Jarrod Matthes and Riordan Foley in a tight final that was viewed as an exciting expression session between them all exchanging good scores on every wave. The Highlight saw Georgia Tomaszuk from Maroubra who held her own against the boys and went score for score with the boys on some nicely selected right-handers.

Mixed 19,s

Mens Malibu

Surf Lifesaving Sydney

Malibu's also had good fields and with the high tide at its peak both the men and women put on a good display with the Wanda men's pair extremely strong and displayfull. Wandas Jamie Hick went within a whisker of being crowned champion in the girls division and the ladies from Maroubra Marie Emerson and Anita Peeti pushed hard to claim good competition points for their club.

Malibu Mermaids

The Men of the 17,s

The under 17 boys saw the every improving Tom Larkin from North Bondi impress on his lefts as well as his rights to be crowned North Cronulla Champion from Tyson Macintosh from Maroubra. Charlie Bodkin and Sam Annear both got good single wave scores and figured in a very close final .Abe Davis rounded out the final and added good points to Maroubra's pointscore.

17 Girls had a solid turn up of girls with Jazmyn Turner strong on her backhand to claim another Title from 2 girls who impressed all day by making three finals with Sophie Moroney and Dani Calo adding much needed points to North Cronulla's account.

Huge turn out of ladies in the 17 and 15

The Under 15 girls saw Paris Whittaker from Cronulla too strong on the scorecard to claim the title from Ireland Cracknell Maroubra and a heap of other Maroubra girls filling the final with some even scores across all the judges score cards. Shanelle Peeti and Jae Wither had strong individual scores and Brooke Emerson and Phoebe Hick tried hard in dying surf conditions.

Surf Lifesaving Sydney

The under 15 boys waited patiently for their turn to surf and Tom Faddy and Brad Matthes put on a good show to finish 1st and 2nd in that order. Reece Macintosh and Tim Barron from Maroubra were impressive and Harris Polkington from Cronulla showed good promise.

15 boys Finalists

Team Event Scores went to the home team

- 1st North Cronulla
- 2nd Maroubra
- 3rd Wanda
- 4th North Bondi
- 5th Cronulla
- 6th Bronte
- 7th Coogee

Next Event Wandas Intercities Carnival Early January

Keep your eyes on the Branch website for details closer to the event

Merry Christmas to all from Sydney Branch Board Riding

And a huge thanks to the North Cronulla Board Riders for hosting a very successful event