

Surf Life Saving SYDNEY EMERGING ATHLETE PROGRAM Mini/Selection Carnival

Surf Life Saving Sydney invites ANY competitors aged U12 to U15's to take part in the Sydney Branch Emerging Athletes (EAP) Mini carnival for Season 2014/2015

In preparation for the 2014/15 Season Surf Life Saving Sydney will again run a mini carnival as part of the Emerging Athlete Program (EAP). Under this season's EAP – ski, board & flags clinics were run at North Cronulla on Sunday 14 September as part of the Surf Life Saving Sydney Gala Day as well as a series of 'off season' Ski Clinics. The next phase of the EAP program will be to hold a mini carnival at Elouera on Sunday 19 October 2014 commencing at 2pm.

The EAP mini carnival is open to all Sydney Branch competitors for the following age groups only - Under 12 to Under 15's. Events will include – swim, board, ironperson, beach sprint & flags.

The EAP mini carnival is designed to introduce competitors to competition for the upcoming season.

The results of this carnival will also be taken into account in the selection process for the 2014 Surf Life Saving Sydney Interbranch Team. On this basis all athletes who have previously nominated for selection by submitting a 2014 Interbranch Representative Team Nomination Form are strongly encouraged to compete.
