Subject	ALBERT Program 2018 - Sydney

Surf Lifesaving Sydney is calling for expressions of interest from Clubs for the upcoming ALBERT Program 2018 IRB weekend. Clubs are asked to nominate a maximum of 5 members who can attend the full weekend at Garie Beach weekend 24/25 November 2018.

EOIs are to be received via the online form link provided from the Branch website FORMS <http://surflifesavingsydney.com.au/admin/online-form/eoi-slss-albert-program-2018/>

EOIs close 26/10/2018. Clubs will be advised of confirmed accepted participants after the closing date.

What is ALBERT?

ALBERT is Australian Lifesaving Boat Emergency Rescue Training, a program which has been developed and successfully delivered by Far North Coast Branch with Sydney Branch to now build on the success and help further develop our IRB Drivers and Crew.

When and Where will ALBERT be held?

The location for ALBERT will be Garie Beach. Accommodation will be provided at Garie SLSC with participants to bring suitable bedding such as airbed and sleeping bag for the weekend. The course will be held on the weekend of 24 & 25 November 2018, participants are welcome to stay Friday 23 November at the club. It is intended that the course start time will be 8am on the Saturday and concluding 5pm on the Sunday.

Who should Clubs nominate?

- Each Club is invited to put forward 5 members to participate in the weekend.
- Candidates must be proficient in either IRB driver or crew award and must be available to attend the program from start to finish.
- Candidates must be current financial members for season 2018/19 season.
- Clubs should try to vary the experience of the candidates they provide. Candidates with less than 12 months power craft experience will benefit most from the program.
