I.R.B BUOY LAYING COURSE

2018-2019

To be held at Coogee SLSC

Saturday 13th October 2018

8am - 3.30pm

Sydney Branch will be holding a Buoying Laying Course on the above mentioned date to assist clubs in learning the skills to lay cans correctly and safely.

All clubs are invited to send along an IRB team however you will need to supply the following:

- Each participating club to supply a fully equipped IRB and Tohatsu Motor * Motors must have surf pack spinner clamps – a must for can laying.

IRB Crews will also need to bring along:

- PFD's to be worn by driver & crewperson
- Wet weather gear might be needed – conditions pending
- A note pad and pen for any details you want to note.

Morning Tea & Lunch will be supplied by Surf Life Saving Sydney Branch.

To lodge your club's expression of interest to attend please email Branch office admin@surflifesavingsydney.com.au with details of attendees by Wednesday 10th October 2018.
